STATE COMMITTEE.—A meeting of the State Committee was held on Friday, at Angustus was organized by the election of G. Blaine as Chairman and Ed-
wood, Esq., Secretary.

It was decided to hold the Union State Convention for the purpose of nominating a Governor, at Bangor, on Thursday.
The day has been selected with reference to the trips of the steamers up the river that morning.

SONG.

—I bath a pure and classic head,
I bath all noble and calm;
I bath a little white spot on the top bath fed,
I bath the fountain bath.

—I bath a proud and regal step—
I bath an air and diademed arm—
I bath a sweeping shower of curls that were raised

—I bath never good old—my love and I—
I bath we know a magic charm—
I bath I keep us twin so handsome and fair—
I bath the Hungarian Bath.

ARRIVALS OF OCEAN STEAMERS.—The Moravian, Capt. Atton, called from at Liverpool. Saturday evening, last, brought sixty-one passengers and a full cargo.
The ship Damascus, Capt. Watts, was in port for Liverpool next Saturday.

The ship Belgian, Capt. Brown, is in the port this week from Liverpool.

GOING AND ENTERING.—A lad named Angus, broke into Wheeler's saloon on depot, Saturday night. He was by the private watchman of the department until the police officers could be sent.

The lad belongs in Brunswick.

THE FIRM OF J. W. JARVIS, as will be seen has purchased the stock and interest in Market Square, recently occupied by W. J. M. McKeen, and there he will have a handsome assortment of the best groceries.
